Subject No. 243.
Appointment of local Committees for supervision of Taluk Dispensaries.

Summary of discussion.—Local Committees should be appointed for the supervision of Dispensaries, which being now directly under a central controlling authority are not subject to sufficient and constant supervision.

Dewan's reply.—The representation is recorded.

Subject No. 244.
Reconstitution of Maddur Sub-Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—Maddur Sub-Taluk should be restored. Need for going to Mandya causes great inconvenience and delay in transaction of business connected with Criminal Cases and Registration.

Dewan's reply.—Maddur is very close to Mandya by the Railway.

Subject No. 245.
Restoration of Hagalhalli Tank.

Summary of discussion.—Hagalhalli Tank should be restored. The tank bed is now given out for cultivation. Valuable betel-leaf gardens below it are deteriorating. Raiyats promised contribution of Rs. 2,000. Estimate prepared for Rs. 7,000. 260 acres will be irrigated and more can be irrigated. Work will benefit raiyats, Government and cattle.

Dewan's reply.—The Deputy Commissioner will be asked to send up a requisition to the Public Works Department.

Subject No. 246.
More time required for payment of Rampur Channel contributions.

Summary of discussion.—More time is required for paying the promised contributions under the Rampur Channel.

Question.—How many crops have been reaped under the improved channel?

Answer.—In some cases three and in some cases two.

Dewan's reply.—You will thus see that the representation is unreasonable.

Subject No. 247.
Feeders required for Kalale Tank.

Summary of discussion.—Feeders are required for the Kalale Tank which has been recently repaired and restored. Existing feeders should be made efficient.

Dewan's reply.—The Public Works Department will be instructed to see to this in communication with the Revenue Department.

Subject No. 248.
Exemption from stamp duty in appeals.

Summary of discussion.—At present clients have to bear cost of stamps in Original and Appellate Courts in all civil cases. This reduces them to poverty. It is therefore prayed that the levy of stamp duty may be limited to Original Courts and dispensed with in the Appellate Courts.

Dewan's reply.—This cannot be done.
